

Lynn Allen Schriener, 70, of Bella Vista, Arkansas passed away Wednesday, May 13, 2009 at Circle of Life Hospice in Springdale, Arkansas.

Lynn was born March 21, 1939, in Great Bend, Kansas, the oldest child of Adolph and Vida Stucky Schriener, growing up in Ponca City, Oklahoma. At the University of Oklahoma he studied Electrical Engineering, played trombone in the marching band and fell in love with Nancy Shorbe. Lynn served in the Army at Ft. Bliss, TX, and attended New Mexico State University before beginning his career in aerospace marketing. He worked on projects worldwide for Collins, Rockwell, Hughes, E-Systems, and Raytheon.

Lynn obtained his ham radio license at age 14. Shortwave radio remained one of his many passions throughout his life. He set records and won numerous world titles in competitions while making thousands of friends around the world over the airwaves as W5FO, WOPCO and W5EQT.

“Poppie” will be remembered always for his sense of humor, his generosity and his never failing enthusiasm.

Lynn is survived by his wife, Nancy Schriener of Bella Vista, Arkansas; his daughter Julie Lazenby and her husband, Bill of Winchester, Virginia; his son, Scott Schriener and his wife, Sara, of Olathe, Kansas; his grandchildren, Camden and Madison Lazenby. Lynn is also survived by his brother Nolan Schriener and family of Colorado Springs, Colorado; his sister, Natha Haynes and family of Charlotte, North Carolina.

A Memorial Service will be held at 10:00 a.m. on Saturday, May 16, 2009 at the Mildred B. Cooper Memorial Chapel, Bella Vista, Arkansas. Arrangements are by the Bella Vista Funeral Home & Crematory, 2258 Forest Hills Blvd., Bella Vista, Arkansas.