Ronald is survived by his wife Jeanette; children, Gaye Lynne (George) Bang of Omaha, Randy Scroggin, and Lori (Dale) Winterboer, all of Rockwell City; six grandchildren, Amy Jo, Joe, and Jordan Bang, Dawn Winterboer, and Ashlyn and Amanda Scroggin; two great-grandchildren, Amaya and Zion Hendon; sister Bettie Yates of Texas; and brother Lyle (Norma) Scroggin of Bristow. Ronald was preceded in death by his parents, Glen and Lucille (Lee) Scroggin; and brother-in-law Darwin Yates.

Ronald L. Scroggin was born Aug. 25, 1931 at Rockwell City. He graduated from Rockwell City High School, with the Class of 1950. Ronald joined the United States Marine Corps and served for 22 years until retiring in 1972, attaining the rank of Captain. He served in the Korean War and the Vietnam War, receiving many medals including the Bronze Medal and four Purple Hearts. On Dec. 19, 1952 he was united in marriage to Jeanette Schultz in San Francisco, California. While serving in the Marine Corps, the couple lived in various communities in California, until returning to Rockwell City in 1973. His passion following his military career was golf. He was an active member of the Church of Christ, served on the Deacon Board, and a member of the Twin Lakes Golf Club. He will be missed and loved forever by his family and friends.
